This book is dedicated to Mrs. Irene Finkel.

Reflections

timeless memory of days gone by-

Reflections

pictures in our mind's eye-

Time goes on and on

Never looking back, moving ever forward.

You may look to the future,

But don't forget the past.

Within this book are the memories which will last.

These are our reflections.

STUYVESANT HIGH SCHOOL

345 EAST 15th STREET, NEW YORK, NEW YORK 10003

Gaspar R. Fabbricante
Principal

Dear Graduates:

During most of your high school career your education was affected in a number of ways by the agonizing fiscal crisis of the city, taking its toll on you and all concerned with your education. Draconian budget cuts and the resulting reduction of educational services curtailed sharply the affluent life we had come to enjoy and almost expect. It was inconceivable to anyone as you began your high school career, that this great city could virtually be brought to its knees as it teetered on the brink of bankruptcy and collapse.

Translated into the daily life style of our school, the budget crisis meant enormous class sizes, (where for a time you may have shared a seat or sat on the window sill) reduction in the number and variety of course offerings and the dismissal of teachers who, for lack of seniority, were excessed or laid off. It was a painful lesson in economics which you learned the hardest way of all, through deprivation and neglect of our nation's most important resource, education. It was a case of the classroom imitation, or more properly, reflecting life, putting to rout the jibes of critics who maintain that our students are out of touch with the real world.

As the economic storm clouds gathered over our city, many of us feared that the damage to our school left in the wake of the crisis would prove irreparable and that we in public education might not survive the anticipated disaster. And then in some curious way we found that you, the students, refusing to be panicked, had risen to the challenge. With maturity beyond your years, understanding, patience and compassion, you began to improvise and innovate where materials, supplies and tools were not available. When the corridors, cafeteria, gym and stairwells became overcrowded you became more solicitous than ever for the welfare of others with a high degree of self control, respect and courtesy. In short, you took a bad situation and made it bearable.

There is no fear for the future prospects of a class that has withstood these onslaughts and come out with a rich harvest of scholarships, awards and honors. We thank you for adding your chapter to the illustrious history of Stuyvesant High and we applaud you for standing by your school and your city in these dark days as we await a happier future and an improved climate for public education.

Congratulations on your graduation and all good wishes for happiness and continued success.

Sincerely,

Gaspar R. Fabbricante
Principal

Dear Seniors:

I am happy to have grown with you since I officially began my job when many of you began your careers at Stuyvesant. I have enjoyed watching you develop into the capable, mature students you are today. You have improved the tone of Stuyvesant by your eagerness and love for the school. Members of your class have strengthened both the curricular and extra-curricular activities in our school.

I want to wish all of you the best success in life, knowing that you have the capabilities to continue improving everything you are involved in. Good luck to all.

Sincerely,

Murray Kahn

Dear Graduates:

During a recent discussion friends told me they would not consider having children if they were getting married in 1976. They explained their feelings by stating that their children, if born, would probably grow up into a society worse than they themselves are experiencing today.

There would be more crime, pollution, inflation, famine, unemployment, rising costs of education, and global tension. Hopefully, the disillusionment expressed by my contemporaries is not shared by the members of the Stuyvesant class of 1977. All of us look to you, and succeeding generations of intelligent young men and women, to help make the world better for all humanity.

This is a responsiblity with which we charge you. I know that as graduates of one of the best high schools in the country you will be capable of meeting this challenge.

Sincerely,

Harold M. Lehrman

Biology

The Biology Department, headed by Mr. Arthur Linder, despite mounting financial problems, has maintained a well-rounded curriculum.

For the first time, General Science is being offered to freshmen as an alternative to the more traditional Earth Science course. In addition to the one year Regents Biology course, the department offers many fascinating electives, including: Environmental Studies, Biological Research, Zoological Techniques, and the Advanced Placement course which is offered to qualified seniors for college credit.

The Biology Department sponsors the Bio-Med Society, which provides students with information on different aspects of modern medicine. It publishes the BIO-MED TIMES, which contains many medically related articles. This year our Biology students had the greatest number of members in the Junior Academy of Sciences.

Chemistry And Physics

The Chemistry and Physics Departments are chaired by Mr. Abraham Baumel. All students are required to complete a minimum of a year course in Chemistry and a year course in Physics. A wide variety of electives are offered in both sciences. In Chemistry, students may choose from Qualitative Analysis, Organic Chemistry and Advanced Placement Chemistry. The Physics program includes electives such as Astronomy, Mechanics, Electricity, Advanced Placement Physics, Electronics and the Philosophy of Science.

There have been several changes in the department this year. Mr. William LeSeur retired from the Physics Department last June. Mr. Norman Horenstein returned from his sabbatical this September, and Miss Daisy Furth joined the department. Unfortunately, Mr. Thomas Micklow has been ill for the entire fall term. Mr. John Callow has been serving in his place.

English

The English Department, under the direction of Mr. William Ince, offers a very wide selection of electives to juniors and seniors. These electives cover many areas including: Creative Writing, Journalism, Black Identity, Elizabethan Drama, and the Feminine Image in Literature. Students may take any of these electives in place of the regular English course. This enables students to study those areas of the literary world they find most interesting. During the course of the school year, the department invites several poets and playwrights to come and discuss their works with the English classes.

The English Department sponsors CALIPER, the literary magazine of the school, as well as SPECTATOR, the official school newspaper. The Department was fortunate to add Ms. Judith Meisels to its staff. Unfortunately, Mr. Sterling Jensen left the department and Mr. Lipper is on leave.

Foreign Language

The Foreign Language Department, which is chaired by Mr. George Malicono, offers courses in Spanish, French, German, Latin, Russian and Hebrew. Advanced Placement French, taught by Mr. Rattner and Advanced Placement Spanish, taught by Miss Puccio, are also offered. The Foreign Language Department sponsors extra-curricular activities such as the French, Greek, Hebrew, Latin and Russian Culture Clubs. Kaleidoscope, the award winning magazine, is published under the guidance of Miss Maria Puccio. This publication devotes itself to the literary efforts of students who excel in foreign language. The Department was sorry to see two excellent teachers, Miss Mereson and Miss Katz, leave but welcomed the addition of Mrs. Eldridge and Mrs. Schmitt. Mr. Rosenrauch, by teaching a Hebrew course, has filled a void created when Miss Mereson departed.

Health Education

Stuyvesant High School's Health Education Department, chaired by Mr. Michael Moskowitz, was fortunate to add Ms. Eileen Mentone to its staff despite recent budgetary cuts.

The Emergency Medical Technician elective was introduced this year. It provides students with an opportunity to learn and practice life-saving skills.

Our sports program has also been expanded: nineteen teams are now offered, serving approximately five hundred students. This year the Volleyball, Bowling, and Girl's Cross Country Teams all won the Manhattan Borough Championships.

Co-ed gym classes were continued. This program makes it possible for all students to have maximum use of all equipment.

Industrial Arts

The Industrial Arts Department, chaired by Mr. Franklin Wright, is a very important part of the curriculum. Each student is required to complete one term of shop. The one term shop courses offered are: Graphic Arts, Plastics, Metalwork and Woodworking. In these classes students are able to use several types of machines (which are employed in the industrial arts field). The Students are also given opportunities to create projects of their own design. In the senior year students are required to take a ten period shop course. This year seniors were able to choose from several interesting electives, including Plastics, Advanced woodworking, Telescope Making, Ceramics and Machine Shop. The idea of these courses is to enable students to gain experience and skill by maximum use of the machinery and tools.

Several changes have taken place within the department. Mr. Pon was added to the staff, and Mr. Tam left the school.

Mathematics

The Mathematics Department, chaired by Mr. Edward Marcantonio, is one of the finest Mathematics Departments in the country. All students must complete Elementary Algebra, Geometry and Intermediate Algebra-Trigonometry. Qualified students may choose from the following electives: Modern Analysis, Calculus, Computer Math, the History of Mathematics or Unified Mathematics.

The Mathematics Department sponsors the Math Society and supervises the publication of the MATH SURVEY. It is also in charge of the Math Resource Center, which allows students to undertake independent studies. The Math Team, under the guidance and coaching of Mr. Barry Glotzer, has continued to excel in national and international competition.

Mechanical Drawing And Fine Arts

Anthony Valenti

The Mechanical Drawing and Fine Arts Department chaired by Mr. Anthony Valenti offers a wide range of courses which enable the students to express their creativity. All students are required to take two terms of Mechanical Drawing. A ten-period shop elective is required of all seniors. The shop courses offered at Stuyvesant High School include Architectural Drafting, Photography and Basic Art. In the Architectural Drafting class, taught by Mr. Scotti, students learn the fundamentals of structural design. The Photography classes, taught by Mr. Valenti and Mr. Gordon, allow the students the opportunity to do very creative projects. The Basic Art class, taught by Mr. Gross, Mr. Spoerri, and Mr. Rosen, designs the posters for the many musical and dramatic performances throughout the school year.

Music

The Music Department, supervised by Mr. Max Watras, produces several fine musical groups. The Symphonic Orchestra, the Symphonic Band, Chorus, and Madrigal Singers perform at the Winter and Spring Concerts. The Stage Band has its own concerts and also performs at such functions as College Night, Orientation Night and various faculty parties. In addition, there are piano recitals, several performances given by the Woodwind Ensemble, the String Quartet, and the Brass Quartet.

Mr. Watras, the Music Department, and the student performers can always be counted on to liven up the year with their enjoyable recitals.

Social Studies

The Social Science Department, headed by Mrs. Vivian Gluck, is constantly trying to keep its curriculum flexible and up to date. Accordingly, the department has made several changes this year, including a revision of the freshman history course. The department offers electives in Labor Studies, Urban Problems, Sociology, Political Theory and Law Studies. An Advanced Placement History course may be taken by qualified seniors for college credit.

The Social Science Department sponsors many outside programs including Bicentennial Scholars and the Urban Studies Seminar. The department, working with the Student Union, sponsors the Model United Nations and the Model Congress. It also supervises the Forum (the Social Studies Club) which publishes FORUM magazine.

The Social Science Department was glad to have both Mr. E. J. Lugo and Mr. Donald McGuire join the staff this year.

Mr. Arnold Bellush is the Coordinator of Student Affairs (C.O.S.A.). He is responsible for coordinating and supervising all of Stuyvesant's extra- and co-curricular activities. Mr. Bellush also counsels and instructs the Student Union and its officers. Serving on the STP, he often acts as a liason between the students and the administration.

Leonard Crapanzano
Dean

Mr. Leonard Crapanzano is Stuyvesant High School's Dean. His job involves dealing with students who have disciplinary problems, excessive absences or are repeated cutters. Students can also talk to Mr. Crapanzano about problems with teachers, their peers, or their overall adjustment to the Stuyvesant environment. Mr. Crapanzano is always willing to lend a hand to anyone who needs him.

Mr. DePalma, the programming chairman, and his committee are responsible for putting the teachers, students, and subjects all together to form a smoothly running program. Mr. DePalma is usually bombarded with complaints and numerous requests for program changes. Thanks to the dedication of Mr. DePalma, most of the students get the right classes and are satisfied with their programs.

Ralph Ferrara
Guidance Counselor

Mr. Ferrara, the only Guidance Counselor at Stuyvesant High School, handles oftenirate teachers, upset students, and distraught parents, while teaching three biology classes a day. He works with the Program, College and Attendance Offices, as well as the department chairmen, in an effort to keep the school running smoothly. He can be found in the Guidance Office, always ready to lend a helping hand.

Mr. Myron Wechsler, the school's College Advisor, is in charge of the College Office which distributes information concerning CEEB, ACT, and other tests. He helps seniors make arrangements for financial aid and scholarships and supervises college application processing. He keeps in close contact with colleges, the Board of Education, and social agencies in order to obtain up-to-date information.

S.P.A.R.K. has been described as a place where students can come and talk about whatever is on their minds. Mr. Cancemi, who replaced Mrs. Katz as the S.P.A.R.K. coordinator, explains that although S.P.A.R.K. is funded as a drug prevention program it is also a place where students can talk about their problems. There are group sessions as well as individual conferences.

Grade Advisors

Cutbacks this year have forced markedly reduced guidance services. There are only three Grade Advisors in the school: Dr. Strudler, Mrs. Ferrara, and Mr. Rittermann. They each work in the Guidance Office two periods a day. Aiding them are four "part-time" Grade Advisors: Mr. Becker, Mr. Glotzer, Mr. Rubinstein and Mr. Weinberg. The Grade Advisors, under the supervision of Mr. Ferrara and Mr. Wechsler, are involved, almost exclusively, in college related guidance.

Library Staff

The library is a very important place to many Stuyvesantians. It contains the necessary resources for research papers and term papers. Students may use the library's Audio-Visual Center, which contains filmstrips, recording cassettes, slides and two micro-film readers. The library's collection of fiction and nonfiction is extensive, and is constantly being expanded. The librarians, Mrs. Lansner and Mrs. Rossman are always helpful.

The laboratory specialists prepare teacher demonstrations and set up all of the student labs for the Biology, Chemistry and Physics Departments. They keep an inventory of equipment and materials, order supplies and are in charge of maintenance and repair of all lab equipment. In Memoriam

Mrs. Irene Finkel

This year, Stuyvesant High School suffered a great loss. The death of Mrs. Irene Finkel, a kind and devoted teacher, has left us with a feeling of emptiness. Mrs. Finkel was not only an understanding teacher, but also a beautiful human being.

Mrs. Finkel loved teaching, and she loved her students. She was a person one could go to with any problem. Many students became very close to her because of her gentleness and comforting nature. Our Math Team came into full bloom because of the students' responsiveness to her coaching.

Her loving kindness and great wisdom enriched all of our lives. Mrs. Finkel has passed on, but the memories we have of her will stay with us forever.

RICH LI (9/14/59-7/29/76)

Paramecium of a Man (A Protist's Protest)

I sit, I gaze, I wonder dazed, the walls around me
are selectively permeable to hate.
I actively transport my emotions.
Diffused
I have loved.
I am too proud to bend,
too stiff to give,
I contradict.
I brush aside with my exterior
in order to move to survive,
to be felt.
I think as a farce
in pseudo-words
that aren't mine
with false hypocrises
that emanate from a vacuole
that is my nucleus.
I am paranoid.
I can only be offended by a person I respect.
I try to be myself.
Cigarettes aren't for me.
I wouldn't mind being on that L. A. freeway.
I love hair. I'm really hairy but not flaky.
I wish I were free.
I wish I could really be me.
I'm brave but scared.
I really try.
I'm a loner.
I think within reason.
I really detest double talk.
A person is only born to be a person.
I am me no matter how or how much I change.
Though I have no voluntary intention of doing so.
I like being nice to people.
What do I do with my complaints?
I'm no fool, I'm just tired.
I hate being compared.
I am prejudiced against prejudiced people.
I am going to die.
Despite this, I still want to have children.
I have nothing to say.
I am going insane.
My life is a deja vu.
I had fun.
My life is a deja vu.
I am going to die.
I don't want to go.
I can really hate.
My life is a deja vu.
Some people are so beautiful.
I'm so damned flexible for people I love.
I need money.
I am going to die.
My life is a deja vu.
I care.
Am I going insane?
I don't know what to say.
It is possible to love and not be in love.
I wouldn't want to lose control.
For what use in life is reasoning?
The difference is you.
Love me tonight.
I want to have kids.
I am strange.
I don't know what I feel about school.
I don't get jealous, I get paranoid.
I need love, not sex.
Not to say deja vu again but I have just experienced it again.

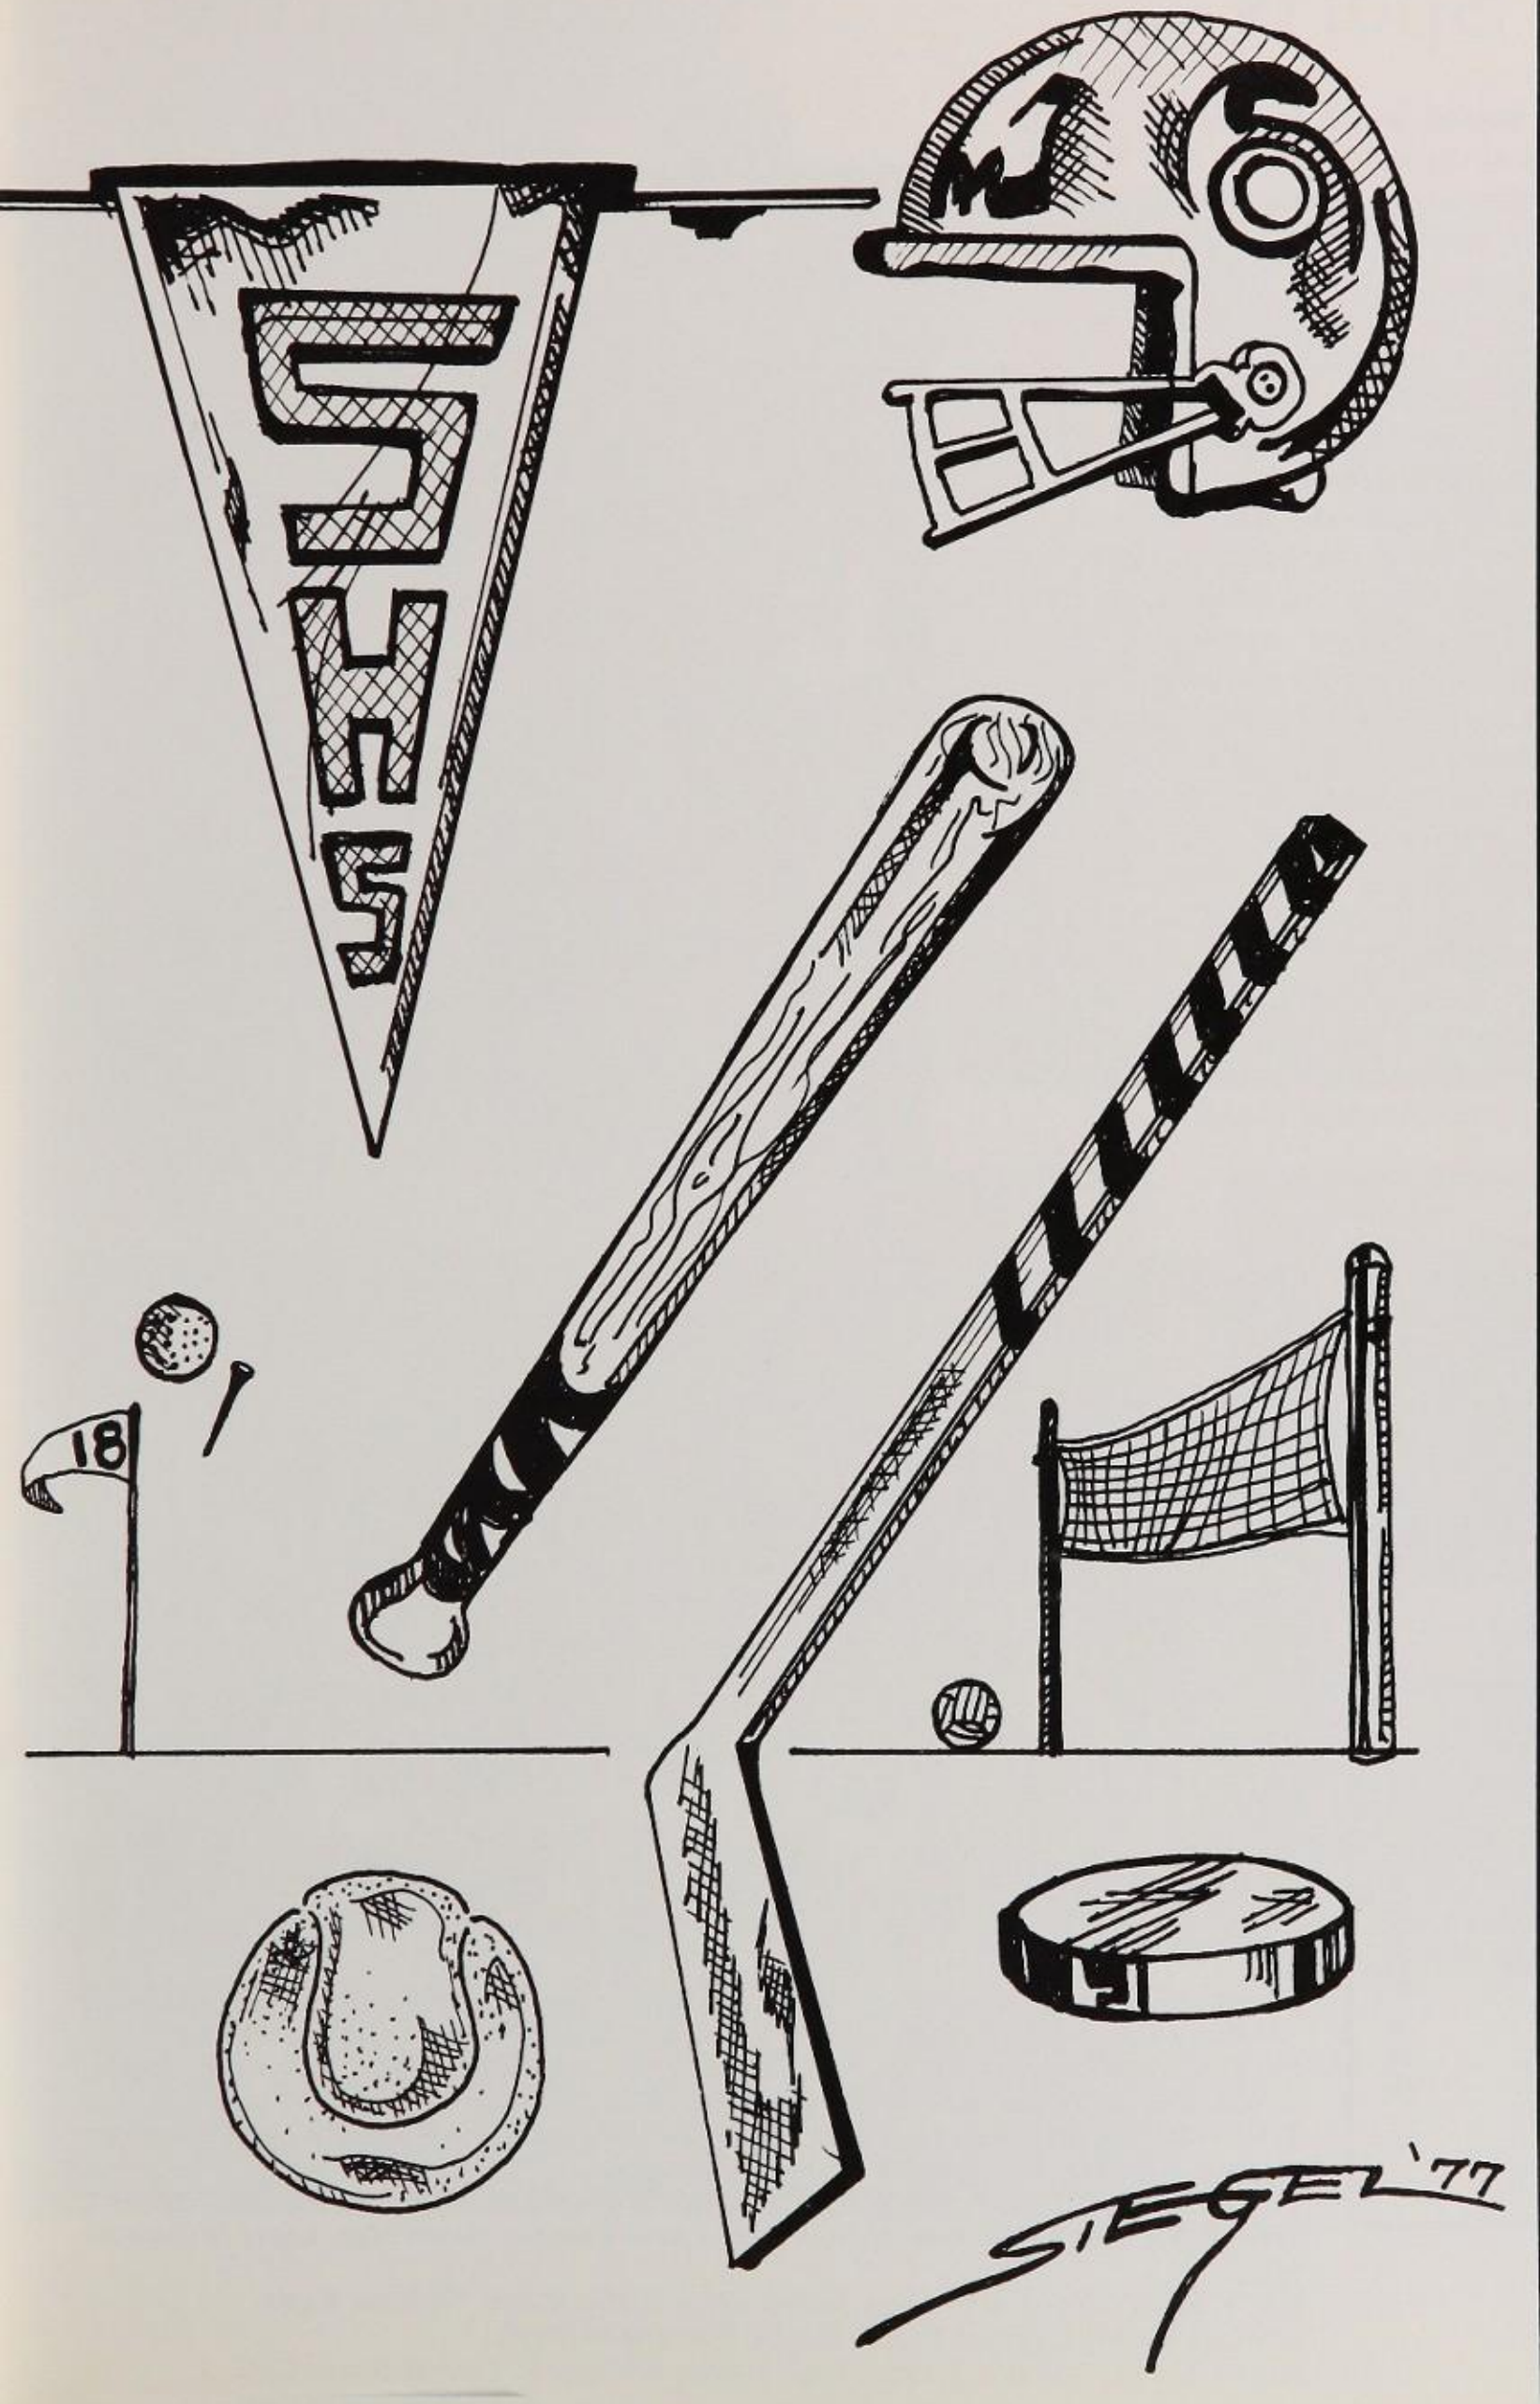
SPORTS



Winter Sports ...

The Peglegs' 1976 season was a frustrating one despite the fine efforts of the new coaches, Mr. Wasserman and Mr. Cappellan. Lacking experience and size from the outset, the football team still had enough pride and courage to consistently train hard and to dutifully prepare for each game. Following a promising first game against Wagner, the season went downhill. After its loss to Lehman, all the hard work and disappointments that the players had endured during the season finally succeeded in demoralizing the team. In a season with a 0 and 9 record no one can be called a hero, but there are some players that deserve special mention. Chrys Nicholas, Tom Calabro, Dave Kugler, Gregg Turkin, and Geoffrey Cabrera played some excellent games on defense, led by defensive captain Laurence McCreary. Captain Al Carlton led the offensive backfield and was helped by Lucky Metalios and Andy Koukoulas. Glenn Frontera was a clutch pass receiver on the struggling offense. Captain Tom Ryan was out most of the season with injuries. Despite the disappointing results of the season, the Peglegs are still a team of which we can be proud. Perhaps the new players will take the Peglegs to a division title next year. If they do, maybe this year's seniors will feel a little more satisfied for having helped the underclassmen along.

Bowling Team

The Bowling Team once again won its division championship. Captain Stu Jennewein's consistently high scores led the team to many victories. The turning point in the season came at Madison Square Garden when Jeff Pike scored a 222, with Erik Lief close behind with a score of 214. Stu Jennewein, Jeff Levinson, Victor Ngai, Jeff Pike and Erik Lief qualified for the City's individual tournament. Both Jeff Levinson and Erik Lief advanced to the finals competition. The experienced coaching of Fred Gordon and the efficient managing of Debbie Ress and Lauren Solomon were instrumental in attaining the division championship.

Stuyvesant High School's Fencing Team posted a 2 and 4 record this year. The fencers were led by Harry Dill (Captain) as well as John DeNatale (who finished fifth in the city-wide individual championships) and Chester Chao. However, tough competition and a couple of heartbreaking defeats decided the record. The very first match set the pace for the disappointing season when we were defeated by Clinton H.S. on touches (although the matches were tied at six apiece). Nevertheless, the team made a strong finish by winning two of their last three matches. Coach Caldes is optimistic about next year's season because our graduating seniors have helped the new members develop their skills.

Volleyball Team

In its third official year of competition, our Girls' Volleyball Team captured the Manhattan First Place division title for the third time, compiling an overall regular season record of 27-1. With come from behind victories against J.F.K. and Tottenville High Schools, respectively, Stuyvesant found itself with an incredible second place out of 70 teams. Newtown H. S. took first place.

The team, led by veteran starters Capt. Denise Whitman and Co-capt. Nancy McKee, showed poise, self-control and determination at all times. Dynamic exhibitions of quickness, skill, and timing were given by Elena Glasberg, Dana Gvildys, Vietta Johnson, and Karen Immergut. Juliet Miller deserves Rookie of the Year honors.

None of this would have been possible without a great coach. She is talented, knowledgeable, soft-spoken, but firm. She doesn't have to demand respect - she automatically gets it. She is Joanne Steuerer.

A local newspaper summed it up in an article about the victory over the Tottenville team: "Stuyvesant had too much balance, too much talent, too much experience, too much of just about everything!"

Boys Cross County

Stuyvesant's Boys Cross Country team placed second in the Manhattan Borough Championship and third in the A-2 division of the New York City Championship; the 1-4 record in dual meets can be misleading. The team was chosen to be a member of the strongest division in cross country racing and therefore always competed with the faster teams. Bright spots in a fine season were the performances of King Wai To, Peter Kintzer, Derek O'Neal, and Vincent Naman. In the Manhattan Borough Championship Kintzer, To, O'Neal, and Naman ran the hilly 2 ½ mile course in 14:42, 14:44, 14:55, and 15:11 minutes to place 9th, 10th, 17th, and 24th respectively. King Wai To also broke the sophmore school record on the same course with the time of 14:11. Surprisingly, the team only had one senior member, Bobby Watts. Therefore almost the whole team will return next year with new recruits, promising a bright future for Stuyvesant's cross country team.

The mile relay team with a time of 3:37.2, broke the school record, consisted of Michael Farr, Richard Anthony, Roland Laird, and Derek O'Neal.

In the upcoming outdoor season the events which our runners excel in are the one mile relay, two mile relay, and the distance medley relay. The likely starting runners on these promising relays are Richard Anthony, Michael Farr, Andrew Goldner, Kevin Horne, Roland Laird, Ernie Livingston, Peter Kintzer, Derek O'Neal, Steve Savvides, King Wai To, Eddie Rizzuto, and Lee Vallone.

Girls Track And Field

The Girls' Track Team, now in its third year, has continued to excel in competition. The Girls' Cross Country Team, now in its first year, came in third in New York City and also captured the Manhattan Borough Championship. The team members practiced diligently, and their hard work paid off.

The indoor season started with the first P.S.A.L. meet. In this meet, Jeannine Clarke won the finals of the 50 meter dash. Other team members clocked their best times in their events. Vietta Johnson, in the 400 meter dash, and Ann Chmielewski, in the mile run, also gave outstanding performances. The coaches, Mr. Sender and Mr. Capellan, expect all of the girls to do well in the City Championships, which will be held on February 11.

Mr. McGrath, who has coached the team since Mr. Sheldon retired, said that the team did a "wonderful job". This is despite the tougher competition in the higher A division and the lack of facilities available for practice. Next year the team will be sent back down to the B division. Mr. McGrath has predicted that the team will "win all the games". The team was led by Capts. John Roros and Lucien White (the goalie). Kwok Lee, the head defenseman, was also an outstanding player. Roros was chosen to be on the All-City soccer team. Both White and Lee were nominated to the A division All-Star Team.

Boys Swimming

The Stuyvesant Swim Team had a very successful season. Coached by Ms. Helena O'Riordan and led by captains John Hoogsteden and Gerrard Hekker, the team finished their season with five wins and three losses. Exceptional performances were given by backstrokers Bob Tschudi and Jay "Elmo" Petrow. Steve Domnitz handled all diving events. Danny Vickers was an invaluable asset to the team, giving fine swimming performances and providing excellent coaching. Freestylers Mark Anders and John Hoogsteden contributed with consistent victories and team spirit. All in all, the Stuyvesant Swim Team not only improved its record, but gained much experience. This will undoubtedly lead to many victorious seasons in the future.

With the fine coaching of Mr. Caldes and the assistance of the senior members of the team, prospects for the future of Stuyvesant's Boys Gymnastics Team look bright.

Basketball Team

The Basketball team, with a 5-11 record, showed a marked improvement during the 1976-77 season over their previous year's performance. The Cagers were a very quick team this year with some very impressive victories, including one in overtime. Leading the team was Captain Kyle Perry, who was an excellent all-around athlete with a superb outside shot. Perry ended the season with a 25 point average and had a 38 point game against George Washington H. S.. Tom Dyevich was the top rebounder for the team. Bennie Francis, a good rebounding forward, Matt Garfinkel, an excellent ball-handler, Gary Harris, a quick forward and George Kichura, a top assist man were all in the starting line-up. Jim Schick, Troy Gaskin, Leroy Alexander, Chris Jesinkey and Kendall Manning rounded out the team.

During the Cager's season some very impressive games were played including an overtime victory against George Washington H. S. (87-85) and a last second win over Seward Park H. S. due to final baskets by Jim Schick and Matt Garfinkel.

The team is coached by Mr. Cavallero. Managers Meganne McLinden and Marianne Petschauer kept up team morale. The team has high hopes for the future with juniors Gary Harris, Chris Jesinkey and Kendall Manning returning.

Girls Gymnastics

The Girl's Gymnastic Team is presently experiencing the most promising year in Stuyvesant history. They have just captured the division title and are looking forward to the City Crown. The team is mainly composed of four starters: Lisa Guest, Ellen Henderson, Mary Ann Griss and Mari Asanuma. Nina Africano turned out to be a pleasant surprise. Aside from turning in a tremendous team effort, the girls have done well individually. Of the five competitors, four will be participating in the Individual Championships: Ellen Henderson and Lisa Guest will compete all-around; Mary Ann Griss and Mari Asanuma will compete on the floor exercise and the balance beam, respectively.

Student-Faculty Volleyball Game

The Student-Faculty Volleyball Game was fun and exciting. This year a feature appearance was made by Mr. Fabbricante. The faculty was represented by Mr. Moskowitz, Ms. Steuerer, Ms. Mentone, Mr. Bellush, and Mr. Weinberg. Mr. Pon, Mr. Preiss, Mr. Bowser and Mr. Prudent also played for the faculty team. All three matches were exciting. When referee Nancy Kechner blew the final whistle, the students had won two out of three matches. The most thrilling match was the last one which the teachers led by a score of 9-0. But the Girl's Volleyball team, led by Seniors Denise Whitman and Elena Glasberg, came from behind to win 15-12. Perhaps the faculty will teach the students something when they play the student-faculty basketball game in the spring.

Spring Sports . . . Baseball Team

Stuyvesant's Baseball team, one of the most consistently successful teams in the school, is looking forward to another good year. Last year's team enjoyed an outstanding 12 and 0 season, losing only in the playoffs to the eventual City Champion, Lincoln High School.

Coach Sharkey will be working the team hard this spring in order to prepare for divisional play against such schools as: Seward Park, Hughes and New York School of Printing.

The team will be led by hard throwing pitchers Ron Kiene and Tom Dyevich, who are also expected to contribute considerable punch to the offensive line-up. Defensively, the team will be led by Angel Perez, David Liu and Andy Burger in the infield, and speedy Rich Anthony and Jeff Shikowitz in the outfield.

Girls' Swimming

The Stuy Strokers, a four year old team coached by Ms. Joanne Steuerer, had their greatest season in '76. The Strokers were forced to practice far from Stuyvesant. With Captain Linda Fiorentino swimming long distance freestyle and Co-captain Lisa Hirschhorn swimming the individual medley, the team was undefeated in the Manhattan-Bronx Division. As Division Champs, the Strokers battled Beach Channel H.S. in the City Quarter-Finals, but lost by a narrow margin. Freestylers Lauren Solomon and Ingrid Adamsons were a great asset to the team victory, as were Debbie Ress and Donna Berman, anchorwomen for the relay team. Sue Dworetsky and Laurie Small were the star back-strokers, and Mari Asanuma, the diver, was also in great form. Sophomore Susan Radermacher remained undefeated and placed second in two events in the City-Wide Individual Championship. The six seniors added a spirit and enthusiasm which hopefully will remain with the Strokers. In '77, the Strokers are looking forward to greater victories and the City Championship Finals. Go Team!

Tennis Team

Tennis at Stuyvesant has become a year round pursuit. Although the competitive season lasts only from April to June, Stuyvesantian tennis players are on the courts all year long. In the fall, the team practices at its home courts located along the F. D. R. Drive. This winter a tournament ladder was played for the first time to decide the starting positions and alternate players for the team. The success of this tournament was due to the personal initiative of the individual team members and the capable management of Meganne McLinden.

This spring, the team is hoping to improve last year's record, which was a respectable 5-3. That record might well have been better; all three defeats were as close as one set.

Last season had many highlights, including the play of the first doubles team of Geoff Rogers and Jeff Bail who were undefeated throughout the season and went on to win the City Championship. They have graduated, but there are some talented holdovers from last year's team, notably Josh Chanin, who played first singles last year as a sophomore and is expected to play the same slot this year. Josh Chanin and Mike Rakijas are both team captains. Also returning from last year are Robert Fisher, Marc Seltzer, Jens Robinson, Paul Stern, Paul Schulman, Peter Good, Eric Berman and Greg Wirshba. Sophomores and juniors make up the rest of the team. The coaching and guidance of Mr. Anik should make for a very successful season.

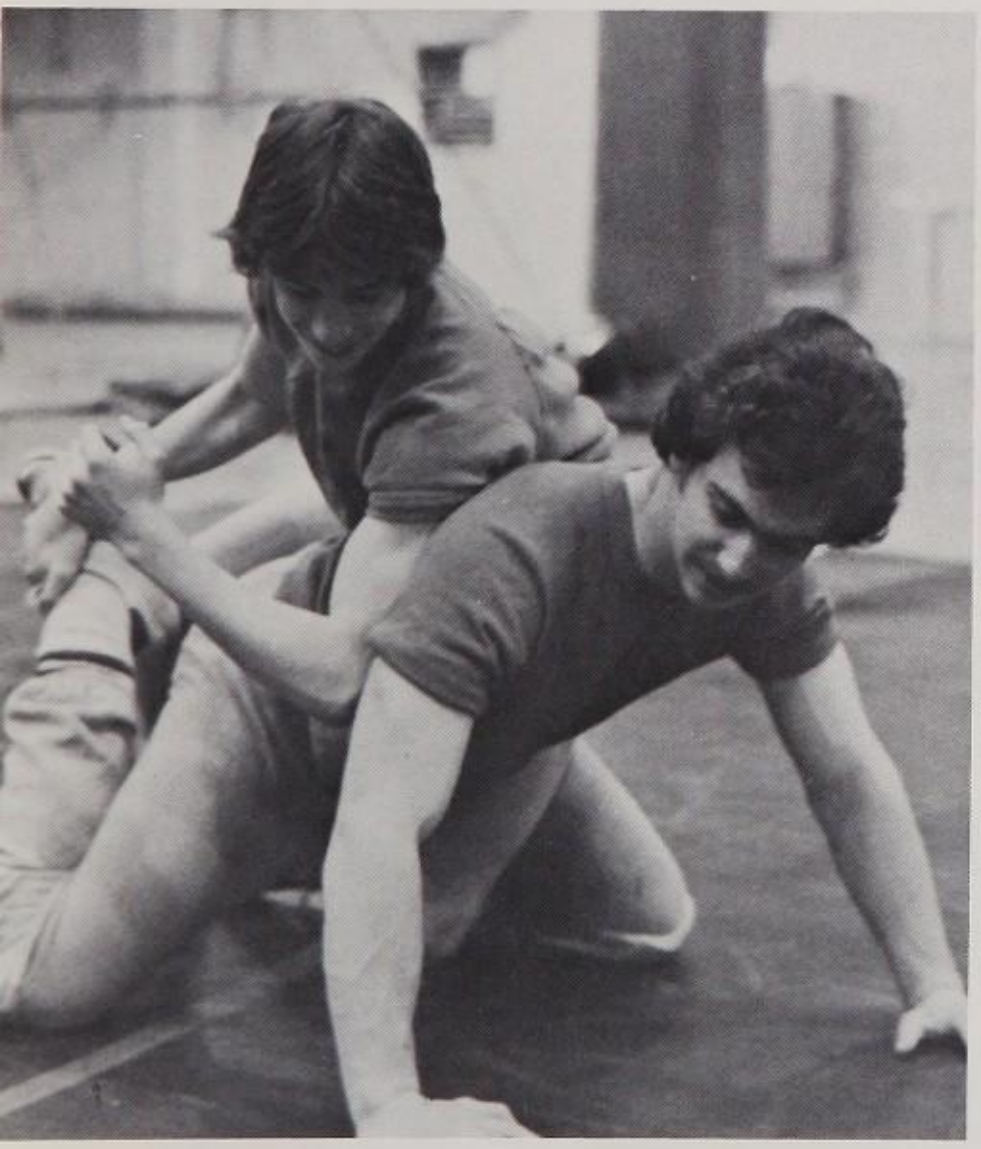
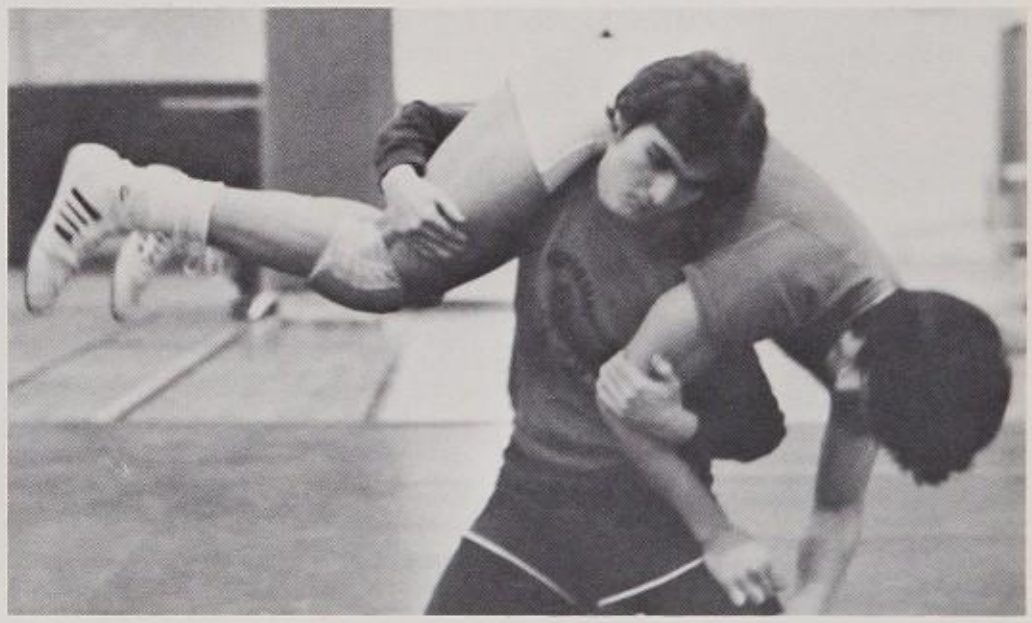
Stuyvesant's Wrestling Team, whose last season's record was seven wins and two losses, should have an even better season this year. The team will be coached by Mr. Wasserman. The captain of the team, Eddie Gray, notes that many varsity members of last year's team will be back this year. They include (in order of weight class) Yves Siegel, Eddie Gray, George Grace, Victor Peng, Hon Lee, Steve Johnson and Larry McCreary.

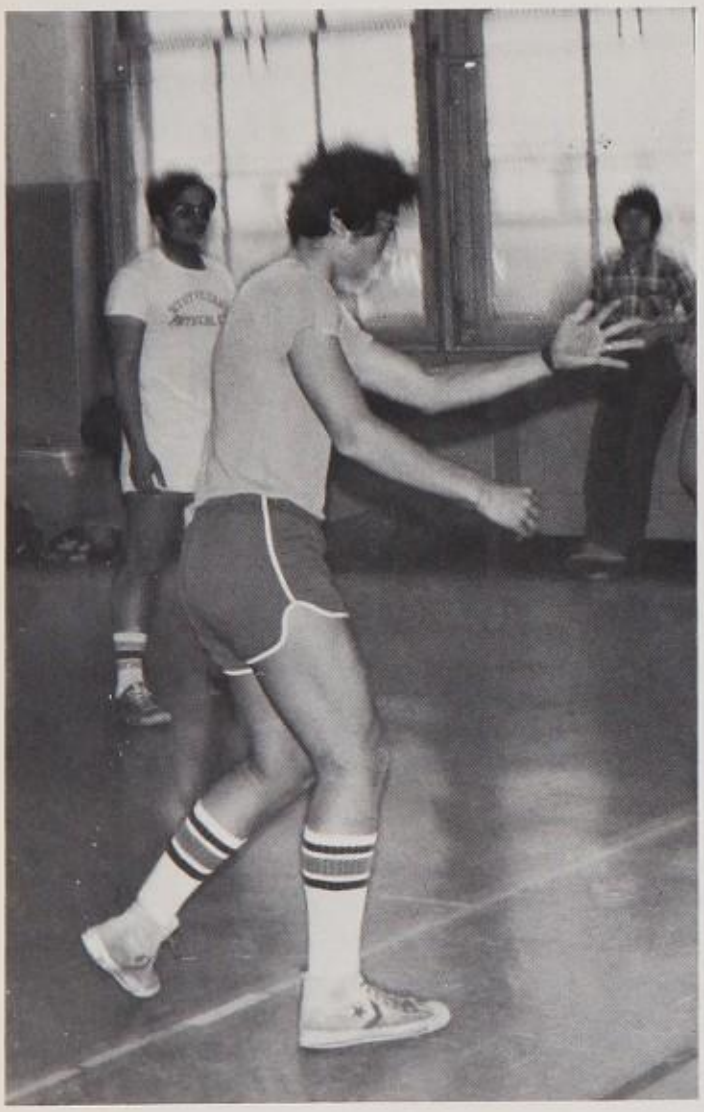
The team has strenuous workouts six days a week in order to prepare for the matches during the season. Each match is six minutes long. A wrestler must be in excellent physical condition to be able to last the full six minutes. Stuyvesant's Wrestling Team should be a top competitor this year.





Handball Team

The Handball Team is returning to Stuyvesant this year after being cut from the athletic schedule last year due to the budget crisis. Coach Cavallero will be looking for prospects in the spring for the upcoming season. Almost all of the players from two years ago have graduated. Furthermore, Phil Frost, a veteran team member, will be unable to play for the team this year. In fact, Stathy Koufidakis may be the only veteran player on the team. We welcome the return of the Handball Team and wish them luck in their spring season.



Team Tryouts

Cheerleaders

The Cheerleaders were absent from Stuyvesant H. S. for a year, but have returned for '76, reorganized by Captain Lisa Bing and Co-captains Allyson Greene and Monica Howard. The cheerleading squad made their first appearance at the Stuyvesant vs. Flushing Football game. The Peglegs lost, but the cheerleaders were winners. The cheerleaders also attended several games of the Basketball season. Ms. Daisy Furth is the faculty advisor of the squad.

Thirty strong, the Boosters are also back, reorganized by Gayle Walthall and Paula Arrington. Ms. Connie Miller is their faculty advisor. The Cheerleaders make the moves and the Boosters match the words. Together they make an unbeatable cheering squad.

In addition to working with the Cheerleaders at games, the Boosters sell tickets to school affairs and athletic events.

Senior Caucus

The Senior Caucus, advised by Miss Eileen Lynch, consists of Hernan Hernandez, Joe Pato, Dean Freedman, Natalie Byfield, Holly Orenstein (the Senior Class Officers), and the Senators of each senior official class. This group meets at least once a month. Meetings are held to discuss and make decisions on matters which concern the entire senior class. Determining the location for graduation and the Senior Prom, the amount for senior dues, and keeping their official classes informed about current events and happenings in school are a part of their job.

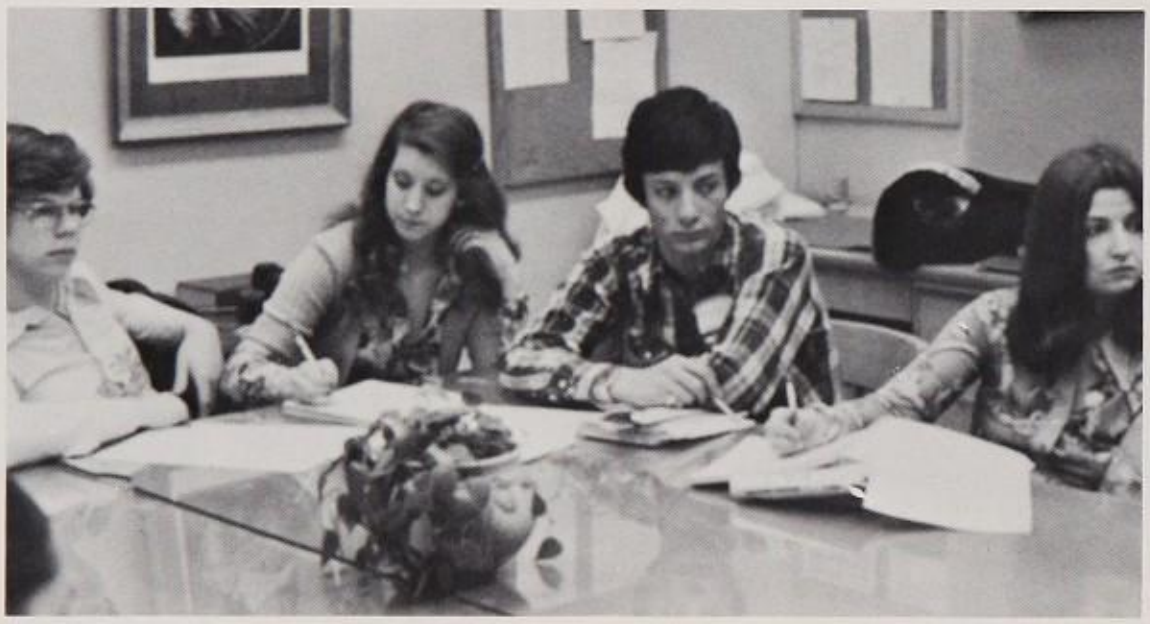
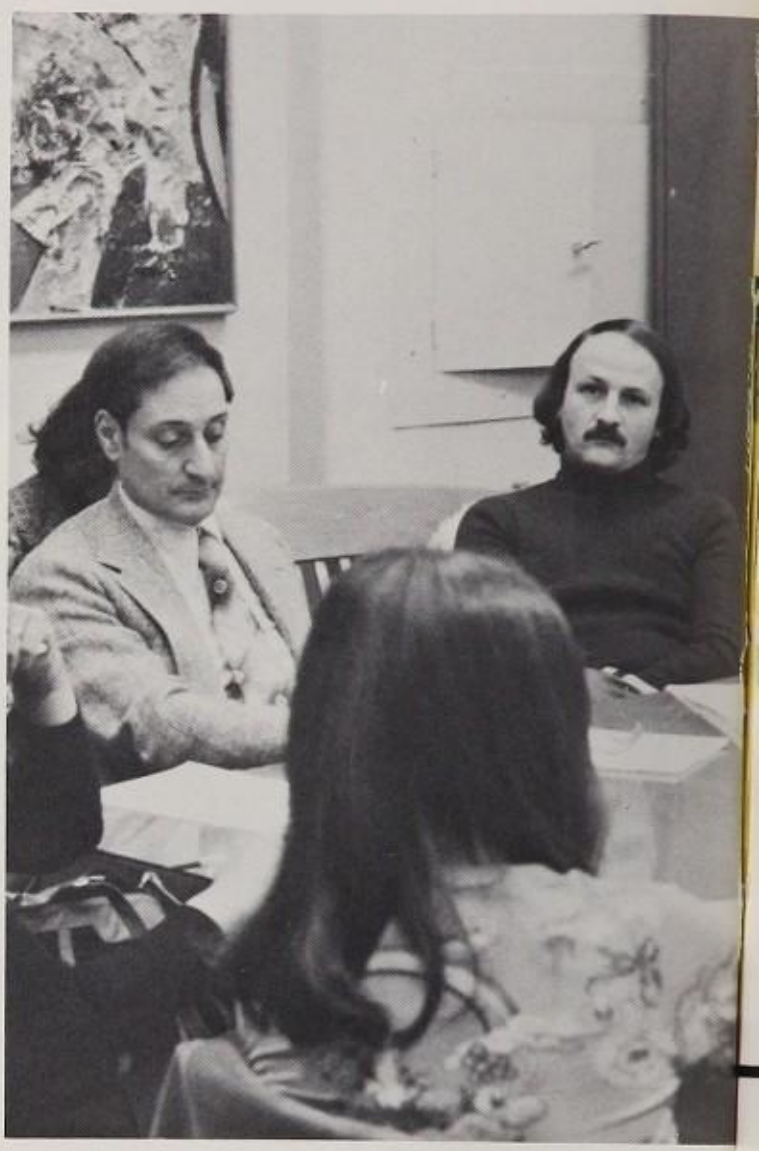
S.T.P.

The Student-Teacher-Parent Consultative Council meets monthly with the Principal to discuss ways to correct school problems. Decisions reached by the group are presented to Mr. Fabbricante for his approval. The council consists of five students, five teachers and five parents. The student body elects three of its delegates directly, and the remaining two seats go to the President and Vice-President of the Student Union. The Departmental Test Schedule, the Out-to-Lunch Program and the Orientation Assemblies for incoming students were all ideas that originated in the S.T.P..





Executive Council

The Executive Council consists of the Student Union President, Vice-President, S.T.P. representatives and elected caucus officials. Technically, they are the main research body of the Student union, but actually do most of the work involved in running the Student Union. The Executive Council researches and approves club charters and budgets and also allocates money to teams, publications and productions.

Budget Committee

Dan Goncharoff, Brian Zimmerman, Marta Siberio.

The budget committee, at the beginning of the school year, prepares the budget for all of Stuyvesant's extra-curricular activities. During the course of the year it makes recommendations on financial requests and oversees all spending

There is more to Stuyvesant than classes and tests. After three o'clock and during the school day itself, students have a chance to participate in a wide variety of extra-curricular activities.

For aspiring journalists, there are many student-run publications to choose from. In addition to the official school paper, Spectator, there are departmental publications such as Kaleidoscope, Forum, Caliper, The Math Survey, BioMed Times, and Nucleus. These publications offer students the chance to learn how to run a paper or magazine.

Those students interested in the behind-the-scenes running of the school may join the Student Union. There is the Senate, the budget committee, the Student-Parent-Teacher committee, and many other political committes on which students may serve.

Stuyvesant also has a sports program that is very successful. Our teams compete in city-wide meets and games, and many go on to win divisional titles. In addition to athletic teams, we have a Math team and a Chess team which are outstanding, and are nationally recognized for their excellence.

There are many clubs at Stuyvesant: ethnic clubs, language clubs, a ski club, cheerleaders, pre-professional clubs, and many more. Some of the more "different" clubs include: the Star Trek Club, the Rapid Transit Club, and the Videotaping Society. Students who have an interest that is not represented in one of the existing clubs may apply for a charter to start their own club.

Our extensive drama program includes the popular Sing competition. The music program is both choral and instrumental. Whether your thing is serving as an usher at a school function, being an Arista tutor, or just throwing a Frisbee on 15th Street you'll always find someone else who shares your interests at Stuyvesant High School.

Indicator '77

Many crises beset the Indicator staff this year. First, there was the resignation of Miss Lynch from her position as faculty advisor. For a long time the Indicator had neither publisher nor photographer; both of these were major obstacles. People like Michael Solomon and the layout staff were of extreme value in overcoming the problems faced in completing the book. Natalie Byfield often had to type by moonlight. Mrs. Susan Brustein came to the rescue of the Indicator, and considering it was the first time she had ever been given the responsibility of advising the staff of a major publication did a noteworthy job. There were also many who worked diligently in the background. The Indicator staff owes special thanks to Hon Tsang for his invaluable assistance. We also thank Mr. and Mrs. Hekker for their help and guidance.

Caliper

CALIPER is Stuyvesant's literary magazine. It is published under the direction of Mr. Frank McCourt. Before the recent cutbacks on all publications, the material in CALIPER was focused on verse, poetry, and fictional short stories. Because of the cutbacks it now includes science-fiction. This is as a result of the recent merger of CALIPER and ANTARES.

The paper is free of charge and is available to all students.

Arista

The top ranking students in Stuyvesant are Arista members. They perform duties such as ushering at various events at Stuyvesant and tutoring students in every subject. The members of Arista publish the STUYVESANT HANDBOOK, which lists the rules and regulations concerning life at Stuyvesant. In 1975 Stuyvesant Arista formed the New York City Council of Honor Societies. This group meets periodically to discuss and exchange new ideas concerning Arista activities.

The officers of Arista are: Sue Dworetsky (President); Gregory Dalack (Vice President); and Lisa Jacobson (Secretary Treasurer). The Faculty advisor is Mrs. Sylvia Landsberg.

National Merit Semi-Finalists

National Merit Semifinalists represent about onehalf of one percent of the graduating high school seniors in the nation. Thirty-three Stuyvesantians have been selected for this honor based on their PSAT/NMSQT scores. Semifinalists who qualify as Finalists are considered for Merit Scholarships. Stuyvesant congratulates these seniors and wishes them continued success.

The Outstanding Negro Semi-Finalist is a student who has achieved a high score on the PSAT/NMSQT. There are ten seniors in the class of 1977 who have merited this award. To become a finalist, the student must do extremely well on the Scholastic Aptitude Test. The finalists are eligible for a scholarship. Stuyvesant is very proud of these students who have brought honor to their school and their community.

James Lopez Scholarship Committee

Two years ago, James Lopez of the class of 1975 was killed in an accident. As a tribute to his memory, his friends and classmates established a memorial award based on outstanding service and character within the school. Each year with the help of Mr. Fabbricante, the committee chooses a recipient for the award. Committee members, who are appointed by the previous year's group, provide a standard application form for the candidates. Music Department

Stuyvesant High School's Music Department consists of five different performing groups. They are: Chorus, Madrigal Singers, Stage Band, Symphonic Band and Symphonic Orchestra.

The Chorus is a vital part of the Music Department. Its members are students who are programmed for MU-6, a music class, or who volunteer to join during their free fifth period. They perform at all the school concerts. They also bring joy to hospital patients at Christmas with their caroling.

The Madrigal Singers is a relatively new part of the Department. They often perform songs of an Ecclesiastical nature. They are accompanied by recorders and violins. Mr. Pomerantz coordinates both the Chorus and Madrigal Singers.

Madrigal Singers

The Stage Band is one of Stuyvesant's finest extra-curricular organizations. The band performs a wide range of music. In addition to their annual concert in school, the band performs at the annual Parent's Association Dinner Dance at the Brooklyn Navy Yard. They also perform at other Stuyvesant functions in and out of school. The Stuyvesant H. S. Stage Band is a fine example of the high caliber of performance in the Music Department.

The Symphonic Band has been an important part of the Music Department for many years. Each year, the band performs at the Winter and Spring Concerts. The band performs a great variety of musical works, everything from Greigg to Gershwin. One additional advantage of band is that participating seniors are exempt from the 10 period shop requirement. SING is an annually performed competitive program. The Seniors, Juniors, and Freshman-Sophomores all compete in a highly motivated talent show. This year four performances were presented. However, only the last two performances were judged. Despite excellent performances by the Frosh-Sophs and the Juniors, the Seniors proved to be victorious. SING V proved to be a great success. Congratulations to all the performers for putting on a great show!
